Brakeworld reserves the right to reject claims where failure or reduced service life has been caused by:-

- Components not fitted in accordance with the vehicle manufacturer's instructions or good workshop practice.
- Fitting brake pads to discs that are either badly worn or where the braking faces are corroded, or not replacing worn brake pad / shoe fitting accessories.
- Failure to complete any remedial work required to ensure the vehicle's braking system is in good working order prior to the fitting of new components.
- Filters – Not changing the engine oil and filter together or fuel / oil contamination.
- Failure of other components not supplied by Brakeworld.

The guarantee does not cover the following:-

- Motor sport, track days or using the vehicle off the public highway.
- Use for commercial purposes. eg. hire vehicles, taxis and delivery vehicles.
- Vehicles that have been subject to modifications that are not approved by the vehicle manufacturer.

Reimbursement of Labour costs will only be considered following a full investigation of the claim, and where there is clear evidence that a material or manufacturing defect has caused a failure in service or reduced service life.

All products supplied by Brakeworld Ltd. are spare parts of matching quality as defined by the EEC Commission Regulation 461/2010, comply with current legislation and have Regulation 90 approval in accordance with European Directive 98/12/EC where appropriate.

The consumer's statutory rights are unaffected.
